

Wade through the Project WET Guide

Facilitator Copy

1. Is “Nature Rules!” a writing activity?
yes
2. What is a three-letter synonym for “vapor?”
gas
3. Is “Water Write” primarily an outdoor activity?
no
4. What does the acronym “WET” stand for?
Water Education for Teachers
5. How many pecks make “a bushel and a peck?”
5
6. What is a good grade 3-5 activity that deals with water rights?
“A Drop in the Bucket” (page 238)
7. Activities are cross-referenced six different ways, what are they? (hint- look at p. 479)?
By Topic, Subject Areas, Time Required, Grade Levels, Setting and Teaching Method
8. In “The Wish Book” activity, how much did a pair of ladies ice skates cost in 1897?
$.62
9. Does “The Life Box” activity take over one hour to present?
no
10. Which grade level is “The Rainstick” used for?
all
11. Write the key vocabulary term for the activity “Raining Cats & Dogs.” proverbs
12. Can the activity “Pass the Jug” be adapted to lower grade levels?
yes
13. The “Easy Street” activity might follow the kids having read what popular children’s book as a “resource?”
“Little House on the Prairie”
14. List 4 key vocabulary terms for “H2Olympics.” adhesion cohesion capillary action surface tension
15. What grades could do “Water Log?”
all
16. Is “Macroinvertebrate Mayhem” an indoor activity for most classrooms?
no