

State Agency RESOURCES for Economic Development

Pre-conference Workshop with 9 State Agencies

In conjunction with WAPA/WASLA 2006
conference

April 5, 2006
1:30-5:00 p.m.

Chula Vista Resort
Wisconsin Dells

A comprehensive plan's Economic Development Element should include programs that promote the stabilization, retention, or expansion of an area's economic base, as well as provide for quality employment opportunities in a community. Staff from nine state agencies will present information relative to the Economic Development Element. The session will feature state agency data, resources, and programs for those involved in comprehensive planning.

Register online at www.wisconsinplanners.org/events/events.htm

Workshop rates: $20 before March 24, $25 after March 24. You do not need to attend the full WAPA/WASLA 2006 conference to attend this pre-conference workshop.

For questions contact Sally Kefer, Department of Natural Resources, 608-266-0833.