(Application Deadline: November 2, 2009)

If you prefer, this application can also be completed electronically by sending an email to laura.chern@wisconsin.gov with 'groundwater training application' in the subject line of your message; an electronic version of this application form will be emailed to you.

1. Names, home addresses and phone numbers of two educators who will participate in the training:
  - a.

  - b.

2. Name, address, and phone number of school or nature center
3. County(ies) served by school/nature center

4. Name of school principal or nature center director
5. E-mail address of each educator

6. Does your school/nature center already have a groundwater flow model? ____Yes ____No
7. With what grade levels will you use the model?
8. In what classes will you use the model?
9. How many students will use or see the model in a school year?
10. Please describe briefly how you plan to incorporate the model in your curriculum or educational program.

11. Include any other information that will help us determine why your school or nature center should be selected to receive a model (e.g., groundwater issues in your area, water related projects that your school/nature center is or plans on becoming involved with, etc.).

12. If our application is selected, we would prefer to attend the workshop at:
_____ Bay Beach Wildlife Sanctuary, Green Bay, Wednesday, January 20 2010
_____ Spooner Ag. Research Station, Spooner, Wednesday, January 27 2010
_____ WGNHS Core Lab, Mount Horeb, Wednesday, February 3, 2010

Please limit the application to 2 pages.

If your application is selected, you will be asked to:

- participate in a one-day training session in January/February, 2010 to learn to use the model and to share ideas with other educators;
- incorporate the model into your curriculum or educational programs;
- demonstrate the model and do at least two related activities with 15 or more students
- perform at least one activity that has a "take-home" component to increase parent awareness;
- and
- complete and submit a two-page written evaluation

If you agree to these conditions, please sign and date the form below.
